

Kentish Saints and Martyrs, 600-1600

A Week of Presentations in September 2021

Each evening at 7.30pm. Canterbury Church venues as listed OR online OR some of each. Donations or any other arrangement organised by the respective churches for their benefit:

Saturday 18 September: St Paul's church:

'An introduction to the cult of saints'
by Dr Sarah James (previously University of Kent)

Monday 20 September: St Martin's church:

'Ox jawbones and Blacksmith's tongs: Sainly Bishops in Early Medieval Kent'
by Dr Diane Heath (CCCU)

Tuesday 21 September: St Paul's church:

'St Anselm's philosophical legacy' by Dr Ralph Norman (CCCU)

Wednesday 22 September: St Mildred's church:

'The importance of locality and identity for the cults of Kent's Anglo-Saxon female saints'
by Dr Sheila Sweetinburgh (CCCU)

Thursday 23 September: St Dunstan's church:

'Conflicting convictions: martyrs of the 16th century'
by Dr Doreen Rosman (retired University of Kent)

Friday 24 September: St Peter's church:

'In Becket's shadow: late medieval Kentish minor and failed cults'
by Dr Sheila Sweetinburgh (CCCU)

Saturday 25 September: St Thomas RC church:

'The role of clothing in Thomas Becket's life and cult'
by Professor Rachel Koopmans (York University, Toronto)

For full details please see <https://bit.ly/3s59igM> or individual church's websites

For the sake of vulnerable other people, please bring a mask, thank you.

Canterbury
Christ Church
University

CKHH

CENTRE FOR
KENT HISTORY & HERITAGE